Many thanks for your letter dearest Miss Weston, which I hope by Sattan has duly acknowledged as I have no time. Your kind provision for our accommodation will I doubt not be adequate enough. If any Aunt joins us perhaps we may be thankful for your prophets chamber, but any arrangement for disposing of three people for three nights that is attended with so much trouble to you will please us best.

Perhaps we could have that front floor next to you for the three days? I fear my Father will not like me to be longer absent unless some specific end for you or the cause can be effected.
We shall hope to be in Devonshire by about 4 P.M. to-morrow which will give us time to look after things for ourselves without putting you to any inconvenience

In great haste I am

Truly yours

Mary Letton
